

Chapman and Cutler Welcomes Returning Partner Matthew C. Boba

Matt Boba rejoins Chapman and Cutler after seven years serving as executive vice president and general counsel at a broker-dealer in Chicago.

---

CHICAGO (August 15, 2011) – Matthew C. Boba has returned to Chapman and Cutler LLP as a partner in the Corporate and Securities practice group.

Mr. Boba rejoins the Firm from Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, where he spent the past seven years working on legal matters, regulatory inquiries, compliance procedures, and corporate secretarial functions as executive vice president and general counsel. He returned to Chapman and Cutler, where his practice began in 1987, to focus on corporate counseling, particularly broker-dealer compliance and FINRA rules and regulations.

“It is great to be back at Chapman,” said Mr. Boba. “My experience at Howe Barnes ties right in to Chapman’s focus on finance, and it just feels like a natural fit to return to a group of such dedicated and talented attorneys.”

Eric Fess, partner and practice group leader for the Corporate and Securities group, said, “The Firm’s corporate finance and securities practice has been growing in both volume and scope, and this is a very exciting time for us. We are thrilled to have Matt back on board.”

Mr. Boba earned his JD from the University of Illinois College of Law in 1987. He also received certification as a public accountant in 1984; holds series 7, 24, and 63 securities licenses; and is qualified as an investment banking representative.

About Chapman and Cutler

Chapman and Cutler LLP is a national law firm with a practice that is focused on financial services transactions and clients. Founded in 1913, the firm has more than 200 attorneys with offices in Chicago, New York, Salt Lake City, and San Francisco. For more information, please visit chapman.com.