SAN FRANCISCO (June 18, 2012) – Chapman and Cutler LLP is pleased to announce that the firm’s San Francisco office has been recognized in the 2012 Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business for Banking and Finance law in California. This is the debut Chambers USA ranking for the firm in this category.

According to the publication, Chapman and Cutler “earned widespread praise from market sources.” Key individuals cited are David McMullen and Jill Matichak. Mr. McMullen, head of the San Francisco office, was praised as “an amazing and wonderful attorney” and a “true professional.” Ms. Matichak, who also ranks nationally in Banking and Finance, was lauded as a “phenomenal attorney” who “really raises the firm’s profile in this area.”

Chambers ranks firms by conducting extensive, in-depth interviews with lawyers and clients. Inclusion in the publication is based solely on research done by the more than 50 full-time researchers at Chambers.

“To be recognized by Chambers as a leader in the field of Banking and Finance law in California is a great honor for the firm,” said Tim Mohan, Chief Executive Partner, “and a real testament to the hard work and dedication of the fantastic attorneys in our San Francisco office.”

The Firm was also ranked in Illinois in Banking and Finance law and nationally in Capital Markets: Securitization law. Several other firm attorneys are also ranked individually: Paul Carman in Illinois for Tax, James Croke and Michael Mitchell nationally for Capital Markets: Securitization, and Kevin Murray in Utah for Energy and Natural Resources.
