

Chapman Partner Selected to Leadership Greater Chicago's Signature Fellows Program

Charles C. Calloway, Jr., a partner in Chapman's Corporate Finance Department, has been selected to the 2022 class of Leadership Greater Chicago's Signature Fellows Program.

CHICAGO, July 22, 2021 — Chapman and Cutler LLP is proud to announce the selection of Charles C. Calloway, Jr. to the 2022 class of the Leadership Greater Chicago (LGC) Signature Fellows Program, the region's premier civic leadership development organization that convenes, connects, and mobilizes promising leaders. This diverse group of 50 accomplished individuals represents a cross-section of professionals from the corporate, nonprofit, government, and education sectors.

"LGC's commitment to investing in the future leadership of Chicago and the Greater Chicago Region aligns with Chapman's core values of advancing diversity, inclusion and equity and using our legal knowledge to support the communities in which we work and live," said Tim Mohan, Chapman's Chief Executive Partner. "We congratulate Charles and are proud to support the important and impactful work LGC is doing to develop future leaders."

"Developing civic leaders is critical today in achieving equity in our criminal justice, healthcare, and education systems, and in the workforce," said Maria Wynne, LGC Chief Executive Officer. "We are grateful for the support of the many sponsors who nominated these outstanding individuals and believe in their ability to change the world. We look forward to the contributions of these leaders to ensure an inclusive future for all who call Chicago home."

Charles is a partner of Chapman's Corporate Finance Department and represents financial institutions and other strategic investors with domestic and international direct placements of debt and equity securities in secured and unsecured financings. He also has an active sports finance and stadium finance practice. "I am honored to be selected as a member of the 2022 LGC class, especially with its renewed focus around racial justice. I look forward to working with LGC and my peer fellows to find solutions to the issues facing Greater Chicago, especially the unprecedented global pandemic, criminal justice reform, economic development and education," he said.

Charles is actively engaged in Chicago's legal and charitable communities. He is a Fellow of the American College of Investment Counsel, serves on Chapman's Diversity Committee, and is a founding member of the firm's Black Attorneys Business Resource Group. Charles also serves as the Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of SPARK, Inc., Treasurer and Vice Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Chicago Humanities Festival, and serves on the Business and Finance Advisory Council of The George Washington University Law School. He was also a Fellow of the 2021 Class of the Chicago Urban League's IMPACT Leadership Development Program, in partnership with University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

Charles joins past LGC fellows including Cook County State's Attorney Kim Foxx, Former First Lady of the United States, Michelle Obama, Former United States Secretary of Education, Arne Duncan, and Former Senior Advisor to the President of the United States, Valerie Jarrett.

About Chapman and Cutler LLP

The representation of financial institutions has been central to Chapman and Cutler's practice since its founding in 1913. Starting from a base of banking and public finance, Chapman and its practice areas have grown and evolved to become a sophisticated provider of legal services to banks, corporations, insurance companies, investment funds, and other participants in the financial services sector. Today, Chapman has offices in Charlotte, Chicago, New York, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, and Washington, DC, dedicated to representing financial services clients with respect to transactional, regulatory, tax, and litigation matters. For more information, please visit chapman.com.

About Leadership Greater Chicago

Leadership Greater Chicago (LGC) is the region's premier civic leadership development organization, providing the knowledge and network to lead bold, transformative change. Since its founding in 1983 by The Chicago Community Trust, LGC has developed more than 1,200 leaders through its Signature Fellows Program—an intensive 10-month program that provides the foundation for a lifelong commitment to civic engagement. For more information, please visit lgcchicago.org.