

Community matters.

Gifting your time, skills, and passion to nonprofit organizations has great impact on our communities and the environment. Chapman congratulates the trailblazers selected as Crain's 2021 Notable Nonprofit Board Leaders. We are especially proud of our own Charles C. Calloway, Jr. for his leadership and nonprofit board service to the Chicago Humanities Festival and the Spark Program, using his gifts to mentor and inspire youth and communities. Congratulations, Charles, on this well-deserved honor!

Charles is a partner in our Corporate Finance Department, a founding member of Chapman's Black Attorneys Business Resource Group, and a member of the firm's internal Employment Committee and Diversity Task Force. He is a Fellow of the American College of Investment Counsel, a 2021 Fellow of the Chicago Urban League's IMPACT Leadership Development Program, a member of the Leadership Greater Chicago Signature Fellows Program Class of 2022, and serves on his alma mater's, George Washington University Law School, Business and Finance Advisory Council.
