

Energy Regulation

Chapman attorneys have significant experience in energy regulation, including in the areas of Federal Energy Regulatory Commission approvals and certifications; state public utility commission approvals; and utility, independent system operator (ISO) and regional transmission organization (RTO) rules and regulations.

Our full range of legal services related to energy regulation includes:

- Exempt Wholesale Generator Rules and Certifications
- Due Diligence
- Market-Based Rate Authorizations
- ISO and RTO Market Participant Rules and Qualifications
- Project Interconnection
- Qualifying Facility Rules and Certifications
- Transmission

Related Practices

Renewable Energy