

Practice Areas

Chapman and Cutler LLP consistently develops innovative and practical legal solutions for complex financial transactions in a variety of practice areas. The Public Finance Department has attorneys with recognized knowledge in such areas as health care, housing, education, student loans, environmental, utility, airport and sports finance facilities. Using a team approach that draws upon the experience of firm attorneys in such diverse areas as public finance, tax, banking and securities, we are skilled at meeting and beating aggressive timetables as well as delivering opinions clients can trust.

Areas Of Concentration

501(c)(3) Not-for-Profit Finance
Airport Finance
Economic Development and Redevelopment
Higher Education
Housing — Multifamily
Housing — Public
Housing — Single Family
Industrial Development
Revenue Bonds — Manufacturing Facilities
Not-for-Profit Health Care Finance
Pay for Success / Social Impact Bonds
Primary and Secondary Education
Reinvestment Products
Solid Waste, Sewage and other Environmental Disposal
Sports Facilities
State and Local Government Obligations Private Placement Group
Student Loan Revenue Bonds
Transportation

Related Practices

Public Finance