Jessica Bernard is a Contract Review Attorney on the Chapman Practice Innovations (CPI) team, focusing on contract management, review, and negotiation. She reviews confidentiality and other agreements for firm clients using CPI's proprietary technology platform for contract review and administration. In addition, she assists with related knowledge management, team member training, and process improvement.

Prior to joining Chapman, Jessica worked as an attorney at a Chicago law firm where her legal work emphasized dispute resolution and advocacy. She is a graduate of the Loyola University Chicago School of Law and the University of Illinois at Chicago.
