

Kristin Walsh Hilson

ASSOCIATE

Chicago

312.845.3793

khilson@chapman.com

Kristin Walsh Hilson is an associate in Chapman's National Public Finance Department. Kristin focuses her practice on tax-exempt and taxable financings for health care, educational and cultural institutions. She serves as underwriters' counsel, bond counsel and borrower's counsel in matters involving a variety of financing structures. Kristin also represents financial institutions in the municipal derivatives area, including interest rate swaps and commodities hedging transactions.

She is a regular participant in public finance industry conferences, including Women in Public Finance, the National Association of Bond Lawyers and the National Association of Health and Educational Facilities Finance Authorities.

Kristin joined Chapman in 2014, after participating in the 2013 summer associate program. Prior to joining Chapman, Kristin was a judicial extern to the Honorable Judge Donn Kessler of the Arizona Court of Appeals.

Admitted

Illinois

Education

University of Notre Dame Law School, J.D., magna cum laude, 2014

- Solicitations Editor, Notre Dame Journal of Law, Ethics, and Public Policy

- Dean's Circle Fellow

University of Arizona, B.S.B. A, Business Economics, summa cum laude, 2011

Practice Focus

501(c)(3) Not-for-Profit Finance

Health Care Finance

Higher Education

Not-for-Profit Health Care Finance

Public Finance