Matt Stuart is an associate in Chapman's Corporate and Securities Department and a member of the firm's Investment Management Group. His practice is focused on the representation of investment advisers and registered investment companies in fund formation, regulatory compliance, and risk management matters involving open-end funds, closed-end funds, exchange-traded funds, unit investment trusts, and private investment companies.

Matt participated in Chapman's summer associate program in 2017 and joined the firm in 2018.

Prior to joining Chapman, Matt worked as a Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) Graduate Fellow at the Land of Lincoln Legal Assistance Foundation. While in law school, he served as an extern to Judge John Robert Blakey of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and worked as a student clinician for the University of Illinois College of Law's Community Preservation Clinic.
