Legal ESG Summit

Conference
October 26-27, 2021

Chapman's Kristin Parker, Stacey Kielbasa, and Nancy Linder spoke at the Legal ESG Summit to share insights for integrating ESG initiatives into the business of law, which includes Chapman's participation in the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC)—a set of 10 human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption principles, along with 17 corresponding sustainable development goals, designed to help businesses make a positive impact on society and the environment.
