ILTACON 2017

Conference
August 17, 2017
Las Vegas, NV

Chapman's Director of Practice Innovations Michael Nogroski discussed the delivery of innovative solutions by law firms to their clients at the International Legal Technology Association's (ILTA) 2017 Conference. Michael participated in a panel discussion that reviewed challenges with respect to delivering legal technology, including pricing, scaling services, and providing ongoing support in a market that has not yet matured.
