

Notable Engagements

Financing 5G in Canada

COUNSEL TO THE INVESTMENT COMPANY IN A $20 MILLION SECURED DEBT FACILITY FOR A CANADIAN FIXED WIRELESS ACCESS AND PRIVATE NETWORK SERVICE PROVIDER.

Chapman served as counsel to CrowdOut Capital LLC—an alternative investment manager that invests in private equity, private credit, and real estate—in a $20 million secured debt facility for TERAGO, a 5G wireless connectivity and networking service provider in Canada. Chapman partner Nick Whitney led the deal team with associate Michael Myones.

Related People

Michael W. Myones

Nicholas A. Whitney

Related Practice

Banking and Financial Services