

Insights

Chapman Attorneys Draft Proposals to Improve US Infrastructure Through Tax Reform

Related Practice

Public Finance

News

August 2017

David Cholst chaired and Sarah Breitmeyer served on a National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL) task force that produced proposals to improve US infrastructure through tax reform. David was also the principal author of a proposal relating to the financing of charter schools. The proposals were submitted on August 22 to the US Department of the Treasury, the National Economic Council, the Senate Finance Committee, and the House Ways and Means Committee. David and Sarah are partners in Chapman's Tax Department.

Read the proposals on NABL's website.