Chapman Pro Bono Team Wins Asylum

Pro Bono
May 2020

Representing a detained client during a pandemic is extraordinarily challenging, but Chapman attorneys Sara Ghadiri, Melanie Haywood, and Eric Silvestri with assistance from Finance Law Development Analyst Rachel Waddey and support from the detained team at National Immigrant Justice Center helped a survivor of severe domestic violence from Egypt obtain asylum. The client was recently released from immigration detention and is now starting to build a new life in the United States without fear.
